NISHAD KUNJU,
Defendants.

NO. CR20-151RAJ

[PROPOSED] PROTECTIVE ORDER

This matter comes before the Court on the Stipulated Motion for a Protective Order regarding discovery materials, as permitted by Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(d). Having considered the record and files herein, the Court finds there is good cause to grant the stipulated motion, and hence:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the United States may designate discovery materials that it deems to contain confidential and/or sensitive information as “Protected Material,” and shall set forth such designation in writing in any discovery logs that describe

1 the relevant materials, in the file names of the relevant materials, and/or on the face of the 2 relevant materials.

3 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the United States' failure to designate materials
4 as "Protected Material" in any discovery production to a defendant shall not constitute a 5 waiver of the government's ability later so to designate the materials.

6 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that each defendant may challenge the government's 7 designation of material as Protected Material in the government's production of discovery 8 to that defendant. In the event that the parties to any such challenge cannot resolve any 9 challenge to the designation of Protected Material by meeting and conferring, the defendant
10 seeking to challenge the government's designation of "Protected Material" may file a 11 motion with the Court requesting that the material not be treated as "Protected Material."

12 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that possession of Protected Material received by each 13 defendant is limited to the relevant defendant's attorneys of record in this case and the 14 attorneys' agents, including paralegals, legal staff, and investigators, as well as expert 15 witnesses (hereinafter the "defense team(s)").

16 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that each defense team may review Protected Material 17 with the relevant defendant, and others to whom disclosure may be necessary to assist with 18 the preparation of the defense at trial and in any subsequent appellate proceedings. Each 19 defendant may inspect and review Protected Material in the presence of their respective 20 defense team, but shall not be allowed to possess, photograph, or record Protected Material 21 or otherwise retain Protected Material or copies thereof. The defense teams shall not 22 provide Protected Material or copies thereof to any other person outside of the defense 23 teams, including the defendants.

24 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this Order does not limit employees of the United 25 States Attorney's Office for the Western District of Washington from disclosing the 26 Protected Material to members of the United States Attorney's Office, federal law 27 enforcement agencies, the Court, or witnesses in order to pursue other investigations or the 28 prosecution in this case. Nor does it limit employees of the United States Attorney's Office

1 for the Western District of Washington from disclosing the Protected Material to the 2 defense teams as necessary to comply with the government's discovery obligations.

3 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if any counsel finds it necessary to file or refer to 4 any Protected Material in any submissions to this Court, the submission shall be filed under 5 seal with the Court.

6 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, in the event compliance with this Order makes 7 it difficult for defense counsel to adhere to their Sixth Amendment obligations, defense 8 counsel shall bring any concerns about the terms of the Order to the attention of the 9 government. The parties shall then meet and confer with the intention of finding a mutually 10 acceptable solution. In the event that the parties cannot reach such a solution, defense 11 counsel shall have the right to bring any concerns about the scope or terms of the Order to 12 the attention of the Court by way of a motion.

13 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that at the conclusion of this case, each defense team 14 shall return Protected Material to the United States, and/or destroy any such material still 15 in its possession.

16 The Clerk of the Court is directed to provide a filed copy of this Protective Order to 17 all counsel of record.

18
19 DATED this ____ day of _____, 2020.
